

Nancy Brough

June 23, 2016

Nancy Lee Brough, 80, of Vancouver, Washington passed away Thursday, June 23, 2016. Nancy was born November 6, 1935 to Ben and Ellen Bork in Calumet, Michigan. At a young age her family, including five of her eight siblings, moved to Vancouver. She met the love of her life, Don Brough, while attending Vancouver High School. Nancy was a homemaker and later in life worked for Safeway in the meat market. She was a loving and devoted wife to Don for 62 years. Nancy is survived by her husband; three sons: Jeff (Julie), Jerry (Cheryl), Brian (Joann); eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. Nancy and Don enjoyed the outdoors, camping, trips to the beach and shrimping at Hood Canal. After retirement they spent many years living on the Wind River and enjoyed hosting Christmas tree cutting get-togethers for extended family. A memorial service will be held, Wednesday, June 29, 2016 at 3:00 pm at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, 1101 NE 112th Avenue, Vancouver. Special thanks to the nurses and staff at Hampton Memory Care and Community Hospice.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 07:58 PM