“ I am so lucky to have known Nancy. She was kind, and generous in her praise, and remembered my birthday without fail. She had a great sense of humor. I remember when she and Dirk were at our house for dinner; our table was second- or third- or fourth-hand and wobbled terribly. Dirk kept spilling his red wine, much to his consternation and to Nancy's delight, as she (and we) could not stop laughing.

She saw the best in people. She was unbelievably patient.

She was such a joyful person, and I will miss her terribly.
