NANCY SUE MOULTRIE September 24, 1941 ~ June 8, 2023

Nancy Sue Moultrie passed away on June 8, 2023, at the age of 81. Born on Sept. 24, 1941, in Arlington, VA, to Harold and Lois Schooler, Nancy was a mom to her three children, Elizabeth Cammack (Jeff Cammack), Cynthia Brungardt (David Brungardt), and Derek Morrison (Violet Morrison). She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

Nancy attended John Rogers Elementary and Hudson's Bay High School in Vancouver, WA. She went on to further her education at Clark Community College, earning an AA degree. Nancy spent most of her career as a bus driver, working for Dial a Ride and the Head Start program. She found great joy in being a foster grandparent with the Head Start program.

Nancy was an active member of the LDS church and enjoyed attending church activities. She was passionate about genealogy work and loved spending time at all the holiday bazaars. Nancy also enjoyed shopping at Bi-Mart on Tuesdays and collecting cookbooks.

Preceding her in death were her husband, Roy Moultrie; and the father of her children, Robert Morrison. She is survived by her sister, Barbara Alu; as well as her seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

A service to celebrate Nancy's life will be held on Saturday, June 17, 2023, at 11:00 a.m. at the LDS church located at 10509 SE 5th St. Vancouver, WA 98664. Nancy's family would like to express their sincerest gratitude to the staff at Parkside Adult Family Home for their kindness and care during her final days.
