

Natasha A. Del Zotto

September 16, 1926 - January 20, 2022

Natasha DelZotto

Natasha was born in Los Angeles, California to Ed and Emma Bagdanov. She was the third of four children. Her older brothers adored their little blond sister as did her little brother.

Natasha grew up in Vancouver Washington and graduated in 1943 from Vancouver High School. She married Bill Hatch after finishing the nursing program at Eastern Washington University and worked at Memorial Hospital for many years. She was involved in the Polio Treatment Pool Therapy in the early 60's. Later she transferred to St. Joseph Hospital. She was capable in many departments, working in surgery was her favorite position.

Natasha retired in 1980 from SW Medical Center. The following year she married Aldo DelZotto and moved to Santa Cruz CA. She had always loved the sun and water and felt quite at home near Aldo's family and friends. After Aldo's death in 2005, Natasha moved back to Vancouver to be closer to her children and grandchildren.

Natasha enjoyed family outings, fishing, camping, travel, reading and knitting. In the 70's she went to Haiti with a medical team from Vancouver. later she and Aldo traveled to Ecuador and Italy. Natasha took every opportunity to visit different places and was always touched by the beauty of the land and cultures she visited.

Natasha was preceded in death by her parents Ed and Emma, husband Aldo

DeZotto, and all of her siblings, Jack, Samuel, and James Bagdanov and son Nicholas Hatch. Surviving Natasha are Lynette Wiley (Wayne), Mike Hatch (Nancy), Terry Cloney (grandson). Grandsons Dan Hatch, (Tanya), Jeremy Wiley (Amy Sehl), Michael Jr. Hatch, Patrick Cloney and Richard Cloney. Granddaughters Rebekah Barnes (Randy) and Jennifer Smith (Mike), Lisa Johnson (Charles). And many very special great-grandchildren. Natasha is laid to rest at Holy Cross Cemetery in Santa Cruz, CA.
