

Nathan Michael Vigorito

February 5, 1987 - November 21, 2009

Nathan Michael Vigorito (February 5, 1987-November 21, 2009) Nathan Michael Vigorito was joyfully welcomed into this world three weeks early on February 5th, 1987. He was the happiest, most relaxed baby any parents could hope for. He was adored from birth and had an offbeat sense of humor that cheered up everyone who loved him. He would always find the silver lining in even the most difficult of situations. Nathan befriended anyone and everyone after a five-minute conversation, which happened frequently due to his outgoing and comical personality. Having many varying interests, Nathan had many friends. Nate loved spending time with his family and friends, mixing records, jiu-jitsu, fishing, animals and cooking. Nathan graduated from Fort Vancouver High School in 2005, and while high school was a bit of a struggle, he excelled in college. Nathan received his Associates Degree from Clark College in 2008, and attended Central Washington University in 2008-2009. At the time of his death, Nathan was attending WSU-Vancouver, where he was receiving mostly A's and on track to earning a Bachelor's of Arts in Human Resource Management in 2010. Nathan is survived by his mother Tina Vigorito, father Richard Vigorito, brother Rich Vigorito and sister Niki Vigorito. The overwhelming support Nathan's family has received is a testament to what a beautiful person he was and the positive impression he left upon this world.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 09:15 PM

RU

“ Oh Nate how much I love and miss you so much. Not a day goes by that you/our good and bad times race through my head. At times I close my eyes tightly wishing and hoping you would come visit again. I miss your smile, your way of making me laugh, your way of always being there whenever I needed you. Today is my birthday and I no longer just celebrate my life but yours as well.... I wish I could express to you how much we all love and miss you... How I long for a bear hug, a kiss from you on my forehead as you would so often give.... Glad to have you looking over us. Once again love you man...

Racheal Maybe Urbalejo - November 21, 2011 at 12:00 AM

JE

“ It's hard to believe it's been five months. I miss you so much... I can't wait to see you again and fill you in on all you've missed out on! I love you buddy.

Jenny Evans - April 21, 2010 at 12:00 AM

SW

“ Tina, Sherry and I am so sorry to hear about Nathan. I just read all of the kind words here and was particularly affected by yours. Our condolences to all of your family in this tragedy.

Steven and Sherry Worden - December 14, 2009 at 12:00 AM

DS

“ (((((Tina)))))) Thank you for letting me meet your angel. Such a fine young man, gone far far too soon. My heart goes out to you.

Diane, SarahsMom4ever - December 11, 2009 at 12:00 AM

ES

“ Dear Tina, I have no words -- other than to say that Nathan is in a very special and amazing place with our heavenly Father. Know that this loving and gracious God will take care of you and your family as well. We are praying for you. God bless... Ed and Susie Vancouver, WA

Ed Solbach - December 07, 2009 at 12:00 AM

GC

“ Tina, I am so very sad for you and your family. I cannot imagine your pain. I've seen the twinkle in your eye and heard the joy in your voice when you speak about Nate. He is with God and he is at peace now. I pray that you find comfort as you begin to see Nate in all the people and things that you love. Portland, OR

Guy Cannova - December 07, 2009 at 12:00 AM

AP

“ There is so many thing i could say, i just wished i could have been there for you more, i wished we were better friends the last several months that i saw you. ill always cherish all the great memories i have of you, its crazy how many lives this effected by this, so many friends that would have never met or relationships that would have been... im just glad i got to know you as much as i did since the 8th grade, ill always stop by where you rest as much as i can for the rest of my life. R.I.P. NATE ILL ALWAYS MISS YOU AND NEVER FORGET YOU.

Andrew Pergiel - December 07, 2009 at 12:00 AM

DR

“ Tina, Rocky told me of your terrible loss last night. I can't imagine being in your shoes, having lost your child. I would be devastated as well. I wish I could be there to give you a big hug and just hold you and let you tell me all about what a wonderful child Nate was. May God's presence bring you peace now and in the future - as there will still be difficult times ahead. I'll pray for you and your family. Please know that if you ever need to talk - I'm only a call away. Darci Ariel, WA

Darci Rivers-Pankratz - December 07, 2009 at 12:00 AM

KM

“ Nate was the rebellious Boy Scout and I was the youngest Girl Scout tagging along after my older sister. Nate hid out with his troop leader mom and older sister at our meetings. He became my true friend at a time I was very lonely, middle school can be full of such dramatic hurdles, but Nate shared my enthusiasm and humor accepting me without judgment -something rare among our awkward pubescent years. Nathan was rare. His large heart and eager laugh set him apart. Together we found imaginative ways to cause mischief. We made rope swings in trees on camping trips, we played hide and seek in the Forestry Service warehouse, and we surely used too many rolls of duct tape. Since moving to Alaska I am often reminded of my earliest scouting experiences. I recall with fondness the adventures I had with the Vigorito family: cramming into their minivan elbows touching, my first backpacking trip, our smoky Yellowstone vacation, and even scrambling through the Ape Caves -all as a motley family. Nate was my friend. Even in death Nathan, you will always make me smile remembering the heartwarming memories I have of such an inspiring spirit.

Katie McCraw - December 03, 2009 at 12:00 AM

GC

“ Tina, I am so very sad for you and your family. I cannot imagine your pain. I've seen the twinkle in your eye and heard the joy in your voice when you speak about Nate. He is with God and he is at peace now. I pray that you find comfort as you begin to see Nate in all the people and things that you love.

Guy Cannova - December 02, 2009 at 12:00 AM

ES

“ Dear Tina, I have no words -- other than to say that Nathan is in a very special and amazing place with our heavenly Father. Know that this loving and gracious God will take care of you and your family as well. We are praying for you. God bless... Ed and Susie

Ed Solbach - December 02, 2009 at 12:00 AM

HA

“ Mom and I are so sorry that we could not be at the funeral to lend what little comfort we could. We did not know Nathan well but knew he was well loved by his family and we ache knowing how much they miss him.

Heather Anderson - December 02, 2009 at 12:00 AM

SK

“ Tina, I can't imagine - we were just talking about Thanksgiving and I went on about getting together with my cousins - that my dad was teasing me to do something "spectacular." You smiled and shared that your kids are all spectacular and each in their own way have created a path and a life and how close you all are. I know how proud of your kids you are and how lucky they are to have you. Wherever they may be or go, they will always know how much you love them - and they love you. We all believe different things; I believe he is in a wonderful, peaceful place and you will someday see him again. May you still hold him in your dreams and feel the love that will last forever. My deepest sympathies to you, your entire family and his many friends.

Shareece Schatz Kush - December 01, 2009 at 12:00 AM

CA

“ Tina...because he knew that not everyone had it easy (due to of his own struggles), he would try to make it smooth for others. I wish I had him as a friend growing up. That is what he was here for, to show us that here are kind people in this world. I can bet that he is watching us and trying to help us to deal with our pain. I know this hurts, I was told once a few years back that God thinks of us as a garden; He only picks the best ones to decorate the halls of Heaven. I hope that thinking that way may help, even if it's only a little.

Carisa - December 01, 2009 at 12:00 AM

EM

“ Tina, I am deeply saddened to hear about your loss. I know it was so unexpected. I thought about you and your family a lot this past weekend. I havent posted anything because I am at a loss for words. Being a new mom, I cannot imagine what you must be going through. I dont know what to say, I just want you to know that you and your family have my deepest sympathy. Love, Elizabeth

Elizabeth Miller - December 01, 2009 at 12:00 AM

DR

“ Tina, Rocky told me of your terrible loss last night. I can't imagine being in your shoes, having lost your child. I would be devastated as well. I wish I could be there to give you a big hug and just hold you and let you tell me all about what a wonderful child Nate was. May God's presence bring you peace now and in the future - as there will still be diffcult times ahead. I'll pray for you and your family. Please know that if you ever need to talk - I'm only a call away. Darci 503-808-2688 work, 360-231-4384 home, 360-798-4240 cell.

Darci Rivers-Pankratz - December 01, 2009 at 12:00 AM

JH

“ When i first think of Nate, i think of the time we sang karaoke together one night with all of our friends. The song was "Love Shack" by the B52's.. I'm sure everyone knows the song. Well if anyone knows me.. I LOVE to sing karaoke and i really needed a partner to sing with. Nate was the first to volunteer- claiming he knew the song like the back of his hand. AFter waiting an hour, if was finally our time to shine. Once the microphones were in our hands, we were ready. What happened next? Nate didn't know a word to Love Shack. I don't even think he had ever heard the song before. Needless to say, i was standing up there singing my part, while the guy part was silent. We pretty much got boo'd off the stage.. But i have never laughed so hard. You will be forever missed Nate, and i look forward to another karake session in heaven with you :)

Jessica Hutson - December 01, 2009 at 12:00 AM

EW

“ Nathan honestly was one of the coolest people anyone could ever know! He and I had been going to school since 1st grade,his dad was our trucker buddy! I will never forget his smile and sense of humor he always made me laugh no matter the situation. I am deeply sadden by this and I hope he will rest in peace and maybe someday we will meet again Viggie!

emily Westmoreland - November 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

TK

“ Tina - All I can say is that my heart aches for you. Mary and I are thinking of you and wishing you comfort.

Tom Knappenberger - November 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

AH

“Nate was the greatest guy ever. He had amazing humor. Everyone knew him and loved him. I loved it when we had English class together, our Senior year of high school. We would always copy each others work. I got to hang out with him on my birthday, and it was the best ever! My only regret is that I never got the chance to see him before he passed. I will always carry that regret. I miss him terribly, and wish he would come back. I will never forget his voice and his smile. He gave such a bear hug. I miss that. I will never forget him. Ever. I love ya Nate.

Adrianna Hensley - November 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

TV

“ I have to go bury my son today. I have to speak a part of the Eulogy. I've written out something appropriate because he was my baby. He was my friend and one of the biggest parts of my life. He is literally the first one I think of in the morning and in my last prayer at night. I don't know how to go on but everyone keeps assuring me I will. I don't want to hear it right now. People also tell me he is with God now and happy. THIS I DO NEED TO HEAR until it's a part of me that brings a small measure of peace. I just really want him happy here with me. I also want to say my piece about people who think it's okay to hurt others with their words and actions because I think a good part of this led Nathan to where he is right now. Our society has turned cruelty into an artform and call it entertainment. Have you ever watched punked and laughed? Did you ever watch the VICTIM's face and think about how they feel. People are doing that to each other on a global scale and you end up with kids who think that they have to be mean to get along-that it's okay to hurt people if you can get a laugh out of it. If you act hurt, it means you don't have a sense of humor. I think that's a load of BS. Nate expected to have people dump on him from the 4th grade teacher who would scream in his face when he was having adverse side effects from medication even though I asked him repeatedly just to call me to let Nate come home, from the prosecuting attorney who wrote his lawyer a note saying that he wouldn't give a couple kids a deal unless they lied about Nate's participation in a crime he didn't commit to the lawyer who thought it was an okay practice and convinced us it would be better. From the 8th grade teacher who told him she was going to pass him because it would be so fun to watch him fail. Nate had many people from every corner of his life who hurt him like that but he just kept smiling and caring about people and giving them another chance to hurt him. He would meet someone for a few minutes and then tell me about a new friend he had. He lived his life with his heart wide open. I wish I'd have been kinder. I wish the friends he had didn't think drugs were an answer. I wish no other Mother had to feel this pain and I sincerely wish we would all learn to treat each other kinder - In Memory of My Son. In Memory of your friend Nathan. He was one of the very best people it was ever my privilege to know and love.

Tina Vigorito - November 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

MW

“ I barely knew Nathan. He was the young child that Tina occasionally brought into the Forest Service office while trying to juggle her job, her kids school activities, and Nathans doctor appointments for asthma. He was a good kid. Who I knew was Tina. The ultimate mother. Protective, always reliable, an advocate for her children. There was no doubt about how important her children were in her life. I cant imagine the pain Tina and all the Vigorito family are going through. To lose a life when someone is so young is gut wrenching. I think of Nathan as a butterfly who perished just he grew into his wings and was ready to fly. I have no words of wisdom that will take away the pain. I just want to remind Tina and her family what wonderful people they are, and that there are many of us who care.

Mike Waite - November 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

SB

“ I didn't know Nate well, as I married into the family 10 years ago and live far away. But the times that I did see him I remember him fondly. I remember him sitting across the table from us at Mary Kay's wedding with this big smile on his face. He visited with everyone at the table and was so open and friendly. I remember seeing him in October, the day he got out of the hospital from his appendectomy. A real trouper, he never complained about how tired he must have been or how much pain he must have been feeling. He visited with his "Montana family" until Tina decided it was time to go home and put him to bed. Nate-- you and your family are in my prayers. May you now be at peace and may your loved ones also find that peace, in time.

Shelley Behm - November 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

RB

“ He was too young to leave us yet look at the impact he had on everyone around him! Such an amazing person and we are all so lucky we had the opportunity to meet him. I'm sorry for your loss and I will keep Nate in my prayers.

Rachel Best - November 29, 2009 at 12:00 AM

JA

“ I was very sorry to hear about Nate. During this difficult time, I pray for peace for your entire family and hope the good memories of Nate stay near to your heart.

Jodie Anderson - November 29, 2009 at 12:00 AM

GL

“ We were very saddened to hear about Nathan's sudden death. Getting to know him during his scouting days at St. John's was a pleasure. Our hearts are heavy for your loss and we will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.

Gail and Art Liberman - November 29, 2009 at 12:00 AM

BH

“ I was one of Nathan's teachers at Fort. While I know high school was, at times, a difficult time for Nathan, he always put forth decency and solid character. So sorry to hear of his passing. My thought are with his family as well as Nikki, who was also a student of mine while I was at Fort.

Brian Hanson - November 28, 2009 at 12:00 AM

MN

“ All my prayers go out to the Vigorito's. I know Nate will be missed by so many people. I wish I could've known him better. He was friends with my brother and best friend and with my fiance. It knocked the wind out of me when I heard. He had just gotten in contact with me a couple weeks ago...

Marissa North - November 28, 2009 at 12:00 AM

RV

“ For being a 'little' brother he was sure the one to always seem to lend a hand, help me out, make me laugh, protect me and my interests, and to be the supporter. My brother was there to help me in everything I did; whether it be to help me move, help work on my place or car, cheer me up, and stick up for me. He never expected anything from anyone, despite always being so giving even to a complete stranger. He was so amp'd about when we built our whamola, was so amp'd for me to buy my house so we could build a bbq pit, help me paint, etc. He and my dad built the kennel for my dog while I was away. I wasn't even there and they built my dog kennel. He just loved being around family and helping. I am so grateful that I moved home after college and that me and him became such great friends. We became more than just brothers in the last two years. I depended on him so much and its so unfair I can't repay all the favors he did for me. Its so unfair that I can't help him move, be an uncle to my sister's kids w/ him, i can't be an uncle to his kids, nor he can be an uncle to mine. Life is not fair. In the words of Nathan, 'all people are lucky in different ways.' This was such a prophetic statement. His pain due to the short comings he had in life have been released. I know he is looking down on us all now and is joyed to really know how his loved ones cared for him. He will be missed forever. I love you brother and hope in the spiritual world you can relax, crack some dick and fart jokes, and enjoy yourself. please look out for us. We still need you buddy.

Rich Vigorito - November 27, 2009 at 12:00 AM

MH

“ I have known Nate since I first met Rich about 10 years ago. Nate was a real character and has made some damn legendary one liners that could make you laugh for weeks at a time. It seemed everywhere we went from a greasy Denny's to the most elegant after hours establishments, Nate was always the first to crack on an old coot waitress or someone high on their soapbox and have everyone rolling. With Nathan it was non-stop laughs. He was so generous and willing to help even if it meant skipping work to take someone to the airport, or driving 6 hours to get to a wedding on a day off. I hope everyone sees Nate's life as not a tragic loss, but a great gain to their own character for having known him.

Matt Holt - November 27, 2009 at 12:00 AM

EG

“ I've know Nate for a long time but I think one of my favorite memory of him was one year (I can't remember which one) we were in a Venturing Scout group together and we were doing snow shoeing around the Mt. Hood area. And he kept going "Ho! Hooo!!" I can't remember why he was saying it but I know it made us all laugh. He always made us laugh. And I'm very sad that he will never make us laugh like that again. He will always be in our memories and hearts forever. R.I.P. Nate.

Elisa (Acker) Grimes - November 27, 2009 at 12:00 AM

TV

“ To my Uncle Richie, Aunt Tina, Cousin Richie, and Cousin Niki; No words can say how sorry I am for this tragic loss, my thoughts go out to you all with my deepest sympathy. I love Nate like he was my little brother and I am very sad he is gone. I will forever remember his unique sense of humor, his charming personality, and his wit. I will miss him deeply and carry him in my heart always. Love you all so much. Your niece, your cousin, Tonja Vigorito xoxo

Tonja Lynne Vigorito - November 27, 2009 at 12:00 AM

TH

“ Tina: Your son's reputation as evidenced by what has been written is a testament of his character, and one that we can all appreciate. Another unfair blow has been dealt in this life. I will pray for all of you as you face these tragic times.

Todd Hayes - November 27, 2009 at 12:00 AM

RP

“ To My Son and my best bud Nate, There are no words that will come close to how much I love you and miss you. It was so easy for me to be your Father, and made everyone around you feel so at ease, myself included. For 22 years you made me smile every day on my life. I am so proud of the fine young man you are. You left on a journey that I will have to catch up with you later. I just want you to know that I will remember the last 22 years of you as the best a Father could want or ask for. I have and will always love you and you know I will never forget you my son. POPS

Richard Vigorito AKA POPS - November 26, 2009 at 12:00 AM

SW

“ My heart aches for the Vigorito family, I have been fortunate enough to be a part of that family for over 24 years and they are the best, anyone who knows this family knows how big each and everyone of their hearts are. Nathan, I remember the day you came home from the hospital. From day one you brought a smile to my face, we loved you so much that I think my mom would have traded me for you, but instead I just became a part of your family. I remember the way you would entertain my friends at my birthday parties, cannon balls in the pool, and falling asleep in the blue recliner. I am sad that as we grew older we didn't keep in touch as often as I would have liked but there was never any distance in my heart and now that I will no longer be able to see your smiley face, I will carry your memories with me forever. You will always remain in my heart and I will always love you. Rest in peace Nathan!!!

Stacy Watkins - November 26, 2009 at 12:00 AM

LD

“ Nate - I will never be ready to say goodbye. You were special from day one. I will forever miss your smile, your hugs and your sense of humor. I am so proud of you, your kindness, your tenacity and the man you grew up to be. I love you. Auntie Lis Tina, Richie, Niki and Richard - I wish you peace. I am so sorry.

Lisa DeCarlo - November 26, 2009 at 12:00 AM

NV

“ Nate was my little brother. I love him so much. I cant even begin to describe all the great memories I have of my brother and I. He was so funny and could always make me laugh even when I was so mad at him. I wish I could have him back to tell him how great of a brother, a man, and a person he was. This is the worse thing possible. I wish I could have helped him out of this one, I always looked out for him. When we would go and hang out he would tell me "Stop being my mom." then laugh and keep going about his business. He was so funny and likable I don't understand how such a horrible thing could happen to him. I love my baby brother and I will never be the same without him. His smile was so perfect. There are so many great things about him I just want him back! I love you Nathan Michael Vigorito and I know you can finally relax now with God, kick back, crack a beer and make them all up there as happy as you made us down here. Please watch over us because we are hurting so bad. I LOVE YOU!

Niki Vigorito - November 26, 2009 at 12:00 AM

NM

“ I don't know how the world can continue with this much pain- I don't know how to get through. I thank God for the family I have but I need the family he took. I don't understand. I miss him so much. I love him with all my heart forever.

Nate's Mom - November 26, 2009 at 12:00 AM

KH

“ Although I didn't get the chance to know Nate as well as I have his older brother, I still remember the first time I met Nate. It was Southern Oregon University graduation for Rich, Matt, and Ricky, and the entire Vigorito clan came down to celebrate. We went out on the town in Ashland the night before graduation and I vividly remember "Pops" cutting a rug on the dance floor and all of us just having a great time. When we got home, Rich and Nate decided it was a great time for a wrestling match. I heard all this crashing around and went out to look, and there the two boys were, wrestling amidst all the soda and garbage they'd knocked over on the kitchen floor. It was such a funny sight, I will never forget it. To the "Pops", Tina, Rich, and Niki - I am so sorry for your tragic loss. You guys are such an awesome family, I am sick over this whole thing and the fact that you are going through so much pain. I wish there was something I could do to take your pain away. Since I can't, I'm just praying that God will be with you during this time of sorrow and provide you with some comfort. I hope you know that Nate touched a lot of lives, even amongst those of us who only had the opportunity to hang out with Nate a few times. He always cracked me up, and it was great having him at Matt's and my wedding in September. I will always remember him with a big smile, because that's what he always put on my face when I hung out with him and the rest of your family. I am so sorry I cannot make Nate's funeral to pay my respects. I hope you know that I will be thinking of your family this whole weekend and praying for you all. I love you guys!

Katie Holt - November 26, 2009 at 12:00 AM

TV

“ At the internment, there will be a short service. After that Nathan will be buried. This takes a little longer so those who wish can go back to the Church and start on the luncheon. When the burial is done, the rest of us will come back and I'd like to have people share some memories. I never knew how deep the hurt can go.

Tina Vigorito - November 26, 2009 at 12:00 AM

TV

“ At the internment, there will be a short service. After that Nathan will be buried. This takes a little longer so those who wish can go back to the Church and start on the luncheon. When the burial is done, the rest of us will come back and I'd like to have people share some memories. I never knew how deep the hurt can go.

Tina Vigorito - November 26, 2009 at 12:00 AM

TS

“ Dear Tina and family Thanksgiving is a time to give thanks for the gifts we have in life and while I do not know Nathan personally, to you and your family I'm certain he was a gift.

Ted Stubblefield - November 26, 2009 at 12:00 AM

CS

“ A wonderful guy. He will be missed and always loved. Our prayers are with you.

Carisa Schram - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

MS

“ I am so sorry for your loss. It's unimaginable the feelings you are going thru right now. If you need someone to talk to, please call me at 360-635-3688. We at the office are thinking of you and are here for your support. Take care of yourself and your family. Mary

Mary Spencer - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

AA

“ I am so sorry for your loss. We will be praying for you and your family.

Aldo Aguilar - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

JS

“ I remember when we were in 8th and 9th grade we used to party in the thunder bird apartments and act like fools nate was the greatest he was a very smart person and I always looked up to him!! my best wishes to his mom dad and his brothers and sister.

jeff sage - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

EF

“ My deepest sympathy. Viggie was a neat kid.

Earl W Ford - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

GG

“ Oh Tina, I am so sorry. I will pray that God puts His arms around you and your family and holds you soooo tight for as long as it takes. I am so sorry.

Gordon Glockner - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

PM

“ So terribly sorry to hear of your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family, Tina. Please take care of yourself and hang in there. Hugs, Pam

Pam Messinger - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

TV

“ The family would like a bit of private time at the viewing. We would prefer if people came in between 1 and 8. I thank you all for your support during this horrific time.

Tina Vigorito - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

JT

“ My heart goes out to you and your family. I hope that you all can find some peace in comforting and taking care of each other during this difficult time.

Jen Trimble - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

AF

“ My memories of Nathan are only the younger days. He was truly my brother's best friend. It saddens me they drifted apart over the years, but I know deep down Moose missed him. I was always the annoying kid sister they wouldn't let play with them. I was pretty young, but I do remember how those two were so inseparable. He was a great friend to my brother, and I'm sure a great friend to many others. I'm very sorry for your loss. I can't imagine what pain you are going through. There are no right words. It's hard to understand why God does the things he does. Just know that he's your personal Angel shining down on you, and that every night, even still he'll be there whether you, whether you know it or not, asking you "What's for dinner!?" My heart goes out to you and the family. Always, Angel Fields. "The annoying kid sister"

Angel Fields - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

RA

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family!

Ryan Anderson - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

LA

“ May your memories of good times shared with Nathan temper this incredible loss and may your family ties provide solace through these unbelievably difficult days. Tina, if you need to talk, hold a hand, or just cry, I'm only a phone call away.

Linda Arnold - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

VM

“ Tina~ Please accept my sincere condolences. May your memories provide you and yours strength during this difficult time. May God Bless and Keep you always.

Virginia Matthews - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

SD

“ Tina, My heart goes out to you and your family during this devastating time. No parent should ever lose a child. There's never anything that can be said that will make it better, but I hope you will count on us here at work for help or anything else you need. May your faith in God provide you comfort. My deepest sympathy

Scott Deveau - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

MH

“ Tina & Family - My most heartfelt sympathies to you. You are in my thoughts and prayers daily. Tina - anything you need you have but to ask.

Megan Helm - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

LB

“ Tina & Family . . . our thoughts and wishes are with you all during this time. Please know what a special place you hold in the world. Much sympathy for your loss.

Lynn Burditt - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

RM

“ Tina and Family, I am so sorry for your loss. May God Bless you and your family in this very sad time. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Ron Murphy - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

MA

“ Tina and Family: We are so sorry for your loss. One so young and with full of life a head of him to have such a short life. You and your family will greatly missed him. Our thoughts and wishes are with you during this time.

Maggie Angobung - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

JN

“ Nathan was Moose's first friend in Kindergarten, from then on they were inseparable. The two of them got in trouble together, kept each other out of trouble. Together they looked so sweet an innocent, they could both crank out a smile that would melt mine and Tina's heart in a second and make us forget they were even in trouble. They played basketball together, they were in cub scouts together, they celebrated their birthdays together even though they were a month apart. I also benefitted from their friendship, we became friends with the Vigorito family. We have many wonderful memories of our times together. Life's changes just took us all in different directions but never far from our thoughts or hearts. I know Moose and I treasured the Vigorito family's generosity, love and friendship. Nathan will be missed here on earth, but his memories, his smile, his laughter and his voice will always be remembered in our hearts. I hope your memories will bring you comfort in this very sorrowful time. Reach out to your friends and family and let this bring you all closer.

Julia North - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

DB

“ Tina, I am so sorry for the loss of your son, Nathan. We are here to support you in any way during this very painful time.

Donald Bednarz - November 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM