“ We are sad to lose Uncle Nelson, but in a way, he is rested and not in pain. Uncle Nel was full of life, and loved making everyone happy. He was full of stories, and always a delight to everyone. He was extra special to our twins, he did magic shows during their birthdays and entertained their friends. Uncle Nel had a big heart and opened his house to the whole Susi clan and more. God bless his heart. He will be missed. To Auntie Angie, Edwin and Amando...we love you and we are here for you anytime just as the late Uncle Nel was for us.

“ I remember always seeing Nelson at the Dog Races back in the day and at spirit mountain casino in the later years. I can only assume he did better than me at gambling since he was always there and always had a smile on his face like a winner. While Growing up during the high school years with his son Edwin I would always go over to the house and was always very welcomed by him. His door was always opened for friends and family. He was a very warm hearted man. More evidence of this came some years later in my college days in the mid 90's.. Nelson worked at Portland State University and my now wife remembers him very well as the nice guy who would always open up the gym for her. I didnt know my wife back then and she would tell me this nice guy would always let her sneak into the gym before it opened so she could get her workout in. Years later she met Edwin and later his father. She told me "thats him, the nice guy who would always let me in the gym early to workout". He was nice even to the people he didnt know and left a mark. Over the past couple years I lost touch with Nelson. I heard he was battling with Diabetes and health. Id always ask Edwin specfically how Nelson was doing and it seemed like he was the same good spirited person but battling with staying healthy. I knew something was wrong becasue I no longer saw him at the casinos. With the hat he'd always wear "Asian Style" with the bill on it unfolded like it was right out of the box brand new. Now days they call that had look "gangsta style" but Nelson was doing it before it was cool.. I remember Nelson very very well like it was yesterday. His smile his great spirits and personality. And thats how I will always remember him. He was a great guy and many people can vouch for that. He will be missed and I feel for those close to him in losing such a great father, husband, family member and friend... Nelson Tanedo, Rest in Peace. You left an effect on us all. Mike Jones
