

Nghia Thi Nguyen

February 2, 1926 - June 20, 2010

"Mother, Grandmother, and to the end an amazing woman." Nghia Nguyen, 84, died peacefully in the company of loving family on June 20, 2010 due to natural causes at the Ray Hickey Hospice House. Ms. Nguyen was born February 2nd, 1926, in Hue, Vietnam to Thu V. and Hiep T. Nguyen. Throughout the ravages of the Vietnam War and in environments of desperation, her courage, tenacity, and endless love provided for her only daughters well being. She escaped communist Vietnam with her daughter, son-in-law, and three grandchildren to go to Anchorage, Alaska, where she lived for several years before coming to Vancouver, WA in 1986. She was the primary caretaker of four grandchildren during their early years. Ms. Nguyen was an enthusiastic member of the Catholic Church and loved reading Vietnamese church magazines. She was also an avid viewer of nature videos, and rarely missed an episode of the Price is Right. We think she always preferred Bob Barker to that new guy. She was as generous as she was kind, never failing to provide support and love to those who needed it, and always, always had a smile for those around her. She is missed greatly by her family and everyone who knew her. Ms. Nguyen is survived by her daughter, Nhan Phan; sister, Hoa T. Nguyen; son-in-law, Hanh Tran; four grandchildren Diana, Vincent, Victor and Harold; grandson-in-law, Doug; granddaughter-in-law, Mariana; and four great-grandchildren, Jackson, Griffin, Tristan and Lilly.
