

Nicholas James Melum

May 3, 1988 - September 4, 2013

"Nick was a kind and compassionate soul and will be missed by all who knew him." Nick passed away Sun., Sept. 1, 2013 in Vancouver, WA. He worked in the computer tech industry. Nick loved the outdoors, bike riding, and computer gaming. "He had a great love for family, poetry and writing." Survivors include his parents, Douglas and Joan Melum; sister, Elizabeth Knight; brother, Christopher Melum; grandfather, Dr. James Park; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins; and his favorite nephews, Noah and Athen Gibson. Services will be at 3 p.m., Fri., Sept. 13, 2013 at Evergreen Memorial Gardens.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 09:06 PM

ML

“ Didn't have a chance to work with Nick for long but always considered him a very good person.

Michael Leiker - September 11, 2013 at 12:00 AM

AB

“ I am very sorry for the family's loss my heart hurts for all of you. I am praying for you. Nick was a great young man I so much enjoyed our conversations when we were able to see each other. Rest in peace Nick until that day comes.

Amanda (Thurston) Bell - September 11, 2013 at 12:00 AM

CH

“ I did not know Nicholas, but as Clark County's Poet Laureate, I felt compelled to reach out and offer my deepest condolences to his family and friends. Words can seem woefully inadequate in the face of tragedy. However, I read that Nicholas loved poetry and writing, and as a representative of Vancouver's writing community, I would like to offer to read a poem for him at tomorrow night's Ghost Town Poetry Open Mic, the monthly event I host at Cover to Cover Books in Vancouver. If this is something that the family or friends of Nicholas might appreciate, please contact me before 5pm on Thursday the 12th: christopherjluna@gmail.com I wish you peace in this time of sadness and mourning.

Christopher - September 11, 2013 at 12:00 AM

AN

“ I'm sorry. He was a great young man. ”

---

Andrea Nelms - September 11, 2013 at 12:00 AM