

Nina Mary Borroz

January 30, 1922 - April 5, 2023

Nina Mary Borroz January 30, 1922 ~ April 15, 2023 Nina Mary (Stonebrink) Borroz was born January 30, 1922, the eighth of fourteen children born to George and Grace Stonebrink in Sofia, New Mexico. She lived there until 1935 when the family relocated to Steamboat Springs, Colorado. Her life consisted of caring for younger siblings, doing farm chores, collecting eggs, milking cows, working in gardens, and learning to sew with her mother. Nina became a seamstress, quilter, upholsterer, and creative innovator of whatever was needed. Nina had a passion for life and always looked for ways to help others. Because of her mother's gentle spirit and trust in God, Nina sought to know God and was drawn to him as a young teenager.

Nina married Oresto Borroz in 1942 and they had four children: Maurice Dale, Alan Dean, Gail, and Clyde. The family finally settled in Vancouver, Washington in 1953. Nina passed from this life on April 15, 2023, at 101 years of age, to join her savior in eternity. Nina was predeceased by her cherished husband, Oresto Borroz, and son Clyde Borroz. She is survived by her beloved children Maurice "Bo" Borroz, Alan Dean Borroz (Brenda), and Gail Durance, her grandchildren Zoe, Corey, Cristy, Jason, Jenny, and Erica, her great-grandchildren, A.J., Georgia, Preston, Ethan, Garrett, Aidan, Lochlan, and Liam, her remaining siblings, Earl and Berle Stonebrink, and many nieces and nephews.

Many thanks to Kaiser Hospice and Nina's team for their excellent care and kindness.
