“ Larry, we haven't seen you or Norma for many years, (since we were all young!). Gail has remained a best friend through the years and so it's as if we are part of the family when he relates the goings on. You two were very pleasant to be around and obviously loved one another and made a very good working team. Norma was so important to Gail and he will miss her every single day. You and she were so lucky to love each other!
