

Norman Eugene Moudy

March 30, 1938 - December 6, 2014

NORMAN EUGENE MOUDY "Norm was an American patriot with a strong work ethic. He will be remembered as a devoted husband, father, and grandfather." Norman Eugene Moudy, age 76, died at Ray Hickey Hospice House in Vancouver, WA on Sat., Dec. 7th, 2014. The cause was squamous cell carcinoma. He was born March 30, 1938 in Fort Wayne, IN. Norm lived in Arizona, California, Raymond, WA, Vancouver, WA, and was in the Arizona National Guard. He worked for the California Highway Patrol, his personal business (Norm's Portable Sawmill), and the Washington State Patrol. He previously worked for the Bank of Clark County and Riverview Community Bank as a courier before his recent retirement in May 2014. Norm was an avid basketball fan, master gardener, and woodworker. Survivors include his wife, Carolyn Moudy (Vancouver, WA); sisters, Ruth Ann McDaniel (Cornville, AZ) and Arlene Vandeloop (Gilbert, AZ); three daughters, Monica Moudy (Olympia, WA), Dena Horne (Shreveport, LA) and Katarina Kueber (Seattle, WA); three grandchildren; one niece; and one nephew. Norm was preceded in death by his father, Herman Rawles; and mother, Eunice Moudy. A Celebration of Life will be planned in the future. Memorial contributions are welcome at the Oregon Chapter of Scleroderma Foundation Oregon Chapter. To make a gift by mail, send your check made out to Scleroderma Foundation, 300 Rosewood Dr., Suite 105, Danvers, MA 01923. To make a gift by phone, call 1-800-722-4673. www.scleroderma.org Please sign his guest book at: www.columbian.com/obits.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

---

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 08:37 PM