“ Oliver was truly a student of life. He studied about everything and was always learning. He loved studying the Bible and didn't stop talking about what he learned. When his dear wife was dying, he told her about the Bible's promise of a resurrection. She asked if he truly believed that. When he said, 'yes', she said 'then I believe it to, because I know you studied it out.' And of course, he loved dancing! Few people two-step into their 90's! If you spent any time with him, he enriched your life. We too have studied about Jesus' promise of a r resurrection. (john 5:28-29 and Acts 24:15) and look forward to seeing Oliver again under much better conditions after God's Kingdom comes and God's will is done as in heaven. He can teach us to two-step!
