“ Uncle Leigh will be so missed. Always enjoyed my visits to see him and Aunt Mary. Such loving family. My mom (Donna Kay) and my sisters(Shelly and Michele) have such great memories growing up of uncle Leigh. My only regret was I was in town the week before you passed away and was very busy taking care of my mom. Love you always Julie Watts Brown

“ Almost like a big brother to me. Life was so hard for Uncle Leigh when he was young, left without a mother and father. He became a wonderful man, loved and remembered by all who knew him. And, an amazing sense of humor. His laugh was infectious.

“ Moe, my brother in law, was such a character, fun to go on trips with, cruises, Vegas etc. Such a good sport. He kept us all laughing. I was there this week, & kept expecting to see him sitting in his favorite spot on the couch, watching TV. He was well taken care of by Mary, & his family till the end. She would make sure he would go out & about with her, & he had a good attitude till the end. He will be missed!

“ Omar showed me what true resilience of spirit looks like and gave me new respect for the struggles of those facing chronic health challenges. He has left a lasting impact on me and affects how I treat patients every time I work. Thanks for being such a wonderful soul!
