

Orson D. Ravenberg

March 27, 1932 - May 2, 2022

Orson D. Ravenberg was born March 27, 1932, in Doty, WA. He graduated from Vancouver, High School in 1950. After High School he went on to serve in the U.S. Navy during the Korean War and was released with honors. Orson also obtained an Associate of Arts degree at Clark College. Orson worked a machinist for several companies, before being hired at BPA where he retired. Orson was a very active member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Orson's faith was a focal point of his life and he served his Lord in many capacities which include being a bishop for the Woodland and Battle Ground Wards. After retirement, Orson and his wife served on three church missions which took him to Singapore, Samoa and Washington D.C. Along with being an active member in his church, Orson was active in the community and was the President of the Ridgefield Little League during the 1970's.

Orson enjoyed fishing, bowling, golf, and watching youth sports. He had passion for wood working. During his later years he made many beautiful pieces for his family and friends.

Orson passed away May 2, 2022, with his beloved wife by his side. Orson is survived by his wife, Shirley Ravenberg; and children, John Ravenberg, Laura Ploium, David Ravenberg, Joy Blackhurst and Todd Ravenberg; 15 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and sister.
