

Patricia J. Blanton

June 25, 1933 - July 8, 2010

Pat passed away peacefully at her home in Vancouver, Washington, at the age of 77. Her husband Charles and two daughters were at her bedside. She was born in Frost, Texas on June 25th, 1933. Pat met the love of her life, Charles, in Cleburne, Texas after he returned from active duty as a Marine in the Korean War. They married in March of 1952 and soon moved to Lubbock, Texas where they raised their two daughters Debbie and Gay. They retired in Mesa, Arizona where they lived in an RV Park and later purchased a home in a senior community where Pat organized a ladies billiards team that competed with other local communities. Pat and Charles were avid motor home people and traveled frequently. On one of their trips they traveled to Vancouver to visit and decided to move there to be with their children and grandchildren. They purchased a home in Fairway Village where Pat was a member of the Bridge Club and Red Hat Society. Pat was happiest when surrounded by her family. She is survived by her husband, Charles; her two daughters, Debbie and Gay; her grandchildren, Nick, Rudy, Natasha and Dusty; and their great-grandchildren, Alexis, Presley and Cash.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 06:45 PM

BI

“ Sorry that we will not be able to be with all of you on Thursday, but you will be in our thoughts. We have so many great memories of Pat, and all the wonderful times that our families shared through the years. We will miss her!

Becky Ivy - July 13, 2010 at 12:00 AM

TF

“ Although its difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, may looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow. We love all of you and will be thinking of everyone on Thursday. Pat will be truly missed by her cousins here in Texas.

Thomas W. & Teresa French - July 12, 2010 at 12:00 AM