“ My mom had a heart of gold. She would help everyone. She took care of dad, my brother Ron, Don and myself. She never asked for much just gave. She gave to school children teaching them respect, senior centers but mostly loved family. My mom was the best mom and taught me a lot of things. She was at my side and exclaimed her love and pride in me right up to the end. She was lady all her life and taught us all. I will miss my mom deeply. I know in my heart she is with God looking over all of us.

“ Patti was my Stepmother and was married to my father Don Copenhagen for the last 10 years. They had a great time together, going dancing and to all their social events. She had a spitfire personality, which is what kept them going and exactly what my Dad needed. In the last few years Patti ended up being my Dad's caregiver, and she did a remarkable job. Always making sure that he made it to his appointments and had all his medicine. I credit her for keeping my father in good health. I am so thankful that she was present in my fathers life and in ours. My condolences goes out to her Children and her many, many, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She will be missed. Love, Ruth Price
