“ Aunt Patsy (Patricia Scott) and Uncle Scotty (John Scott) were both very special to me. I always looked up to them and imagined what it would be like to live all over the world like they did. We lived far apart so couldn't get together that often but I always felt loved when they did visit. Uncle Scotty always had a joke to tell or a magic act to memorize us with. Aunt Patsy, my mother's sister, was always kind and caring to me. After my mom passed away she made a point to check on me frequently to see how I was doing. I will miss both of them dearly. Let's keep in touch cousins. I have lots of fond memories of you all too and want to keep that contact. Love, Mary Jane
