Patricia A. Simmons

Date of Birth: May 27, 1963

Date of Death: February 16, 2026

Patricia (Patty) Simmons was a great mother, sister, spouse, and grandmother. Not only was she these great things, but she was also the best friend to all of us. Patty was the type of person that was always there when you needed an ear, or even the simplest forms of advice. She was never afraid to fight for what she believed in, nor was she afraid to speak her mind. Patty showed her love for her family in many different ways. One way was in her love of baking. She would make all the desserts for the holidays, and of course for her dad, Dennis's birthday. The main desserts that she made were apple and pumpkin pie. Her apple pie is still being made by her daughter. Her grandchildren, however, got the most special kind of love. Nothing will ever beat her love for her grandchildren. They all got a special piece of her no matter what anyone thought. The love that she shared with them was greater than the words themselves. She had many different hobbies including gardening, crocheting, painting, and reading. Although, gardening was her main hobby. She took pride in her garden. The second the weather got nicer; she was out there getting it cleaned up for her spring flowers to come up. She also had a lot of rocks that she painted in her garden. Anyone that went over to her house loved to go sit out in her garden and watch all of the birds (hummingbirds especially) and the wildlife that came to visit. Patty is preceded in death by her mother Mildred C. (Troxel) Owens, her father(s) Jim D. Owens and Dennis I. Davis, and her brother Gerald (Jerry) Owens. She leaves behind her four children Crystal, James, Mark, and Bradley; her five grandchildren, Robert, Lilly, Elizabeth, James Jr., and Shawna. She also left behind her three remaining siblings, Jimmy, Lauri, and stepsister Elizabeth. Along with leaving behind her long time significant other Larry and her exhusband Tom. She will be greatly missed by each and every one of them.

“ Growing up, Patty was always so full of life. Always had a smile. When she first became a parent (Crystal) and you doted on her. And your aunt Lauri directly across the way in an apt identical but flipped with melody. You grew up together then. Patty and I spent a lot of time together when I was growing up, her and Lauri. My mom would drop me off daily. Patty and Lauri would take me to school with them sometimes at Bay and It always made me feel so smart to go to their classes with them. Thank you for treating me like I mattered when I really needed it most. (Lauri and Jeannie, too) I will miss you Patty. I am so sad that we didn't get to connect when I was able to get back home in 2024. 💜💔
