Obituary for Pauline Louise Netherda

Pauline Louise Netherda of Vancouver, WA passed on Sunday July 14, 2019 at the age of 82. She was born in Selah, WA on January 30, 1937 to Thomas and Mildred Evans.

She has two sisters Dorothy (Dot) Michaels, and Shirley Pratt.

She married the love of her life Del Netherda in 1955 in Yakima, WA. They moved to Vancouver, WA in 1959 where Del went to work for the Postal service.

Pauline, after having five children, went to work for Western Electric and then subsequently to Bemis Bag Factory.

She is survived by her children Dan (Becky) Netherda, Paula (Dr Doug) Forgey, Cathy Bonds (Corey), and Traci (Bill) Allman.

She has 17 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren and she will miss her "babies" deeply as well as her four legged friend Ryder.

She is predeceased by her husband Del, daughter Sue and Parents Thomas and Mildred.

She was a devote Christian with a true love and passion for family and animals and will never be replaced in our hearts or minds.

A memorial service will be held on Thursday July 18 at 12:30 PM. It will be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens in Vancouver. There will be a reception following the service.

“ My wonderful sister and dear friend, Pauline Louise Netherda, passed away Sunday July 14, 2017 and left a huge hole in my heart! Pauline was one of God's very special people that brought so much love & happiness to all of us! My heart is broken knowing I will not be able to talk to her daily. But I am happy she is now in God's arms in Heaven, free from pain! Pauline truly was a very precious lady sent to us from Heaven above! Sister Pauline I Love You & I am so thankful I was blessed to be in your life! I love & will miss you, my precious wonderful sister!
