

Pearl Louise Broscheit

March 16, 1926 - June 10, 2021

Pearl Louise Broscheit, 95, of Vancouver, WA passed away June 10, 2021, with family by her side. Pearl was born to William and Minnie Stauffer March 16, 1926, in Camas, WA. She attended Sunnyside School.

In 1949, Pearl married Walter Broscheit. They lived in Washougal for 40 years, where they raised their family. Mom was an amazing homemaker, gardener and baker. She canned many fruits and vegetables every summer, many from their large garden. Mom loved spending time with her kids and grandchildren. She enjoyed going for long drives especially up the Gorge. She loved talking on the phone with family and friends reminiscing about the good old days and a day didn't go by without her working on her puzzle books. Mom will always be remembered as a kind and caring person.

Pearl is survived by her six children, sons, Howard (Carolyn) of Camas, Larry (Linda) of Montana, and Ron of Vancouver; daughters, Carolyn Wolf (Dwight) of Ridgefield, WA, Beverly Cox (Paul) of Camas, and Karan Coghlan of Vancouver; 12 grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren; sister, Doris Kromminga; brother, Donald Stauffer; and sister-in-law, Eva Jennings.

Pearl was preceded in death by her husband, Walter. The day Pearl passed away would have been her and Walter's 72nd wedding anniversary. We can only imagine the glorious reunion they must be having.

Pearl was loved by all and will be deeply missed.

A graveside service will be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens in Vancouver, WA on June 18, 2021 at 10 a.m.

“ A vivid image of her sitting in the recliner playing Word Search and talking about the weather. She would tell me how healthy she was without medication and share some of her memories of years ago. She will be missed.
