“ Bob and Family: There will always be an empty space along the highway where Peggy traveled with all of you. Now she is helping to turn on all the lights in Heavens' roadways. My prayers are for your peace at this difficult time. May God bless you all

“ Bob & family, Our sincerest condolences go out to each of you. We pray God will comfort of you and give you peace today and in the future and especially during your time of sorrow. Peggy was a dear person who was loved by us and all who knew her. Your loss, though great, is heaven's gain. Our prayers are with you. We sincerely wish we could be there to give you hugs and personally show our love to you. Blessings to each of you.
