

Peggy Jo Glem

October 24, 1951 - December 18, 2010

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

KG

“ Aunt Peggy, I miss you a lot. Your passing has made life harder, and I have to drag myself through it every day. I find you are gone when I need you the most. I love you so much and can't wait to see you again. ~Kaitlyn

Kaitlyn Glem - January 05, 2011 at 12:00 AM

NB

“ She was and is both an angel in heaven and on earth. She is a tool in the lords hands and gives, the young women in her ward especially, strength to keep going. She was a wife, mother, grandmother, a teacher, and a friend. But most of all, she was an angel. I love you Sister Glem!

Natalie Elizabeth Bradshaw - December 21, 2010 at 12:00 AM

RG

“ I remember the day we first met 2 years ago. We were in the middle of interviews, and this sweet lady walks into my office @ SWCA. Sits down and before we ask any questions, let me now if we hire her, she needs to have some fridays and mondays off as she flies to BYU Football games in the fall, also enjoys watch any bowl game, so if that works for my schedule we can hire her. With out question, she started the next day. Peggy, you reminded me of my mom, not by her age, but her kindness and caring for everyone. Peggy, you are loved by many, and will be missed by us all. But Heaven just got its #1 Angel over the weekend. Love you, Randy

Randy Graves - December 21, 2010 at 12:00 AM