“ He was my PO and he tried his best to get me on the right path. I had to learn the hard way but he had a big heart and I knew it wasn't just a job. I actually loved him. Never told him though. Ready easy BooFoo.

“ I had the honor and pleasure of working alongside Pete at the Juvenile Detention Center 1987-1998. Even with his already long career there, his genuine empathy for and dedication to the youth there were inspiring. Plus to this day I quote his many humorous witticisms. He made many of my days much better. RIP Pete.
