

Peter Anthony Kavanagh

January 6, 1941 - September 1, 2009

Peter A. Kavanagh, of Vancouver, WA, passed away on Tuesday, September 1, 2009. He is survived by his devoted wife of 41 years, Elizabeth Kavanagh; and 2 daughters, Kaihtlin Kavanagh of San Carlos, CA and Maihgan Kavanagh, M.D., of San Jose, CA. Beloved by his sister, Kathleen Kavanagh Gould, and brother-in-law Herbert Gould, M.D. Remembered with love by his nieces and nephew, Dierdhre, Siobhan, Gawain, and Morganna Gould of White Plains, NY, and closest of friends, Phillip and Janet Talarico of Belfair, WA. Peter was a proud alumnus of the Laguardia High School of Music and Art, Voice major, Class of 1958, and Manhattan School of Music. He was a veteran of the Armed Services. He created AppleTV for Apple Computer and retired after serving as the computer guru for the Local 39 stationary engineers. He was greatly loved and appreciated, and will be missed by many.

“ Pete had a powerful voice, and he loved acting! In a play I staged for Apple ATG, he was Leonardo de Vinci. I believe I still have the VHS copy of the play somewhere :) Adieu Pierre, Peut-être au ciel, d'Ã¢me Ã¢me. Jean-Luc

“ Peter was funny, loved life, loved to eat, he introduced me to Port, thank you Peter. When he was in a good mood, sometimes he would walk around our area singing in his amazing voice and he told great stories. Let me think, one of his halloween costumes was him wearing a pink four/four, he couldn't fit into a too-too (sp sorry).

“ *I had the honor of working for Peter as his Area Associate in the Data Center at Apple Computer in the early 80's. We were 'an arrangement made by Apple' and both a little apprehensive, but we came to respect and appreciate each other to the fullest. I know he will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.
