Petrovia (Pete) Valentine died peacefully at home on September 10, 2022. She was born in 1929 in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, and grew up in Rapid City, SD with her parents Andrew and Elizabeth Karsten and sisters Joyce and Andreta. She attended Hope College in Michigan before marrying Charles (Charlie) R. Valentine in 1948. They lived in several towns in Ohio, North and South Dakota, and Montana while he was employed with Peter Kiewit Sons Co. In 1971, they moved to Vancouver, Washington, where he started and retired from his business, Valentine Surfacing. Pete was preceded in death by her husband Charlie in 2002 and by her sister Andreta. She is survived by her sister Joyce Larsen of Dallas, Texas; her children Kathleen (Gary) Pearse, Deborah Valentine, Robin Moore, Chuck (Sandy) Valentine, and Andrew (Kristi) Valentine; her grandchildren Anna Weimer, Matt Moore, Jake Valentine, John Barker, Jennie Moore, Carly Andre, Charlotte Barker, Brian Valentine, Jordyn Wilkerson, and Joshua Wilkerson; and great-grandchildren Ava, Grace, and Poppy Weimer, Brooks and Colbie Valentine, and McClane and Miles Andre. Her family was a source of great pride and joy to her. She loved to travel and enjoyed her trips abroad and at home with friends and family. She especially valued her friends and neighbors. She met many good friends through playing bridge, an enduring interest of hers. Pete volunteered at various nonprofits over the years. She has left us a legacy of love, and she will be missed. A memorial service will be announced at a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations to Habitat of Humanity would be appreciated as she believed in good housing for all.
