

Phillip David Odegard

October 25, 1922 - December 12, 2010

Born October 25, 1922 in Milaca, MN, Phil was the youngest of five children. Phil served as a Radio Mechanic at the rank of Sargent in WW II in the Army Air Corp and received the American Theater Service Medal, the European-African-Middle Eastern Theater Service Medal, and Good Conduct medals. Phil worked as a carpenter and married Eleanor Wills in 1961 and had one son, Erik Odegard. Eleanor passed away on May 14, 2010, and his son Erik resides in Vancouver, WA. Phil was a life-long outdoorsman who loved to fish, hunt, and hike, and found great peace being out in nature. Phil and Eleanor lived in their own home until late 2009 and they both enjoyed good health up until their last few months. Phil and Eleanor will be interred at the Willamette National Cemetery on December 29, 2010 after Military Honors.
