“ I have a few memories of Aunt Jean. Jean, Dorothy, and Janis were always close sisters. A lot of time was spent together as families on the weekends at the Fletcher home. We gathered families together for food and cards Gilman, Glenn, Ben, and Donald loved playing cards while the sisters with their mother were always pickling something. Whenever I stayed at Jeans home she was quite the quilter. That was evidenced by years of posts on social media. It was not always fun and games when I stayed at Jeans home. Craig and I worked hard doing chores and moving sprinkler pipes. Jean learned the value of hard work from her parents. I spent a few summers on the Fletchers ranch working hard also. Jean will be missed but her example she set for all of us will live on. She lead by example, gentleness, and kindness. We love you Aunt Jean. Greg Airhart
