

Raymond John Clark

April 26, 1924 - November 12, 2015

RAYMOND J. CLARK April 26, 1924 ~ November 12, 2015 Raymond J. Clark, born April 26, 1924, passed away peacefully at his home with family, Nov. 12, 2015 after a valiant fight with cancer. He was the second son born to George and Florence Clark in Ridgefield, WA. Ray attended school in Salmon Creek and later at Vancouver High School. He joined the Army and served in Africa and Italy during WWII as a driver, often taking troops to the front line. After his discharge, Ray came home and married his high school sweetheart, Evelyn Marrion Allen at St. Paul's Lutheran Church here in Vancouver. After the honeymoon, he worked at various jobs until he got on at Boise Cascade as a millwright and retired there after 40 years. After his retirement, Ray and Evelyn enjoyed traveling, going to the casinos and being with their family. He also enjoyed woodworking, gardening and visiting with all their friends at Oak Haven Community. Ray is survived by his wife, Evelyn, of 70 years; and his children: Dennis (Ellen), Marsha Newman (Dan), Allen (deceased), Sue Brock, Douglas (Kim) and Tracy Clark; his grandchildren and great-grandchildren; and his older brother, George and wife Ruth. A special thank you to the people at PeaceHealth Hospice who took care of our family in the last 2 months. A memorial will be held at Grace Lutheran Church, 9900 SE Mill Plain Blvd., on Fri., Dec. 4 at 1 p.m. Please sign his guest book at: www.columbian.com/obits.
