

Raymond Eugene Quackenbush

May 22, 1948 - March 2, 2014

Ray Quackenbush passed away on Sunday, March 2nd 2014 at home, surrounded by family and loved ones. Ray was born and raised in Joplin, MO and spent the majority of his adult life in Portland, OR and Vancouver, WA as a tree topping foreman, mechanic, and jack of all trades. Ray enjoyed camping, hunting, fishing, working on cars and spending time with family and friends. Ray is survived by his loving wife of 23 years, Sue Heinzl; his children, Kent and Holly Quackenbush; stepchildren, Shelley, Kat, and Amanda Heinzl; grandchildren, Caitlin, Monika, Tyler, Colton, Jacob, Gavin, Cadiance, and Emily; sisters, Donna (Gilbert) Alderman, Linda Stacey, and Nancy Williams; brothers, Jerry (Karol) Quackenbush, James Quackenbush; and numerous brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, nephews, nieces, and many friends. He was preceded in death by his father, Dee Quackenbush; mother, Ruth Lamoyne (Barlow) Quackenbush; sister, Diane Pike; and brothers, Robert, Ronald, and Bruce Quackenbush.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 07:24 PM

RR

“ Ray and I worked together for Line Service Co. trimming trees in Tulsa Ok. We rented Apts. together, chased all the girls in Tulsa, caught a few, we worked together in 1967 & 68. Ray was a good man , hard worker, very honest. We were young and had a lot of fun, I have a lot of found memories. We will meet again old friend.

Ralph Roby - March 15, 2014 at 12:00 AM