

Ren Rath

February 15, 1940 - November 30, 2025

Ren Rath was born on February 15, 1940, in Cambodia, and passed away peacefully on November 30, 2025.

He worked as a train conductor for the Cambodian railroad system for many years prior to the start of the Khemer Rouge war in 1975. In 1981, he and his family immigrated to America and Ren worked various jobs at the same time he managed to take ESL classes. His first permanent job was with Armour food company, and later completed his career at Freightliner truck plant where he retired as a painter.

Ren enjoyed fishing, gardening, spending time with his family, and was especially known for beating everyone at cornhole.

He is survived by his wife of 55 years, Sim Rath; his daughter Phally and son-in-law Sothy Prom; his daughter Kiri and son-in-law Robert Enloe; his son Ratha; and his grandchildren Glory, Grace, Faith, Micah, Riley, Luca, and Justin.

A funeral and burial service will be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens on Saturday, December 27, 2025, at 10:00 a.m.

The family gives thanks to God for Ren's life, love, and faith, and finds comfort in knowing he is now at peace in the presence of the Lord.
