“ My deepest condolences to Caroline and the entire family. I only had the pleasure of meeting Rhoda once or twice outside Caroline's office, but I could tell then she was a woman of sharp intelligence and wit. I imagine she will be sorely missed, and I send all of you my prayers for healing after such a loss. Love...Liz

“ To all the family (but especially Caroline, with whom I have the pleasure to work): It's hard to lose family members at any age, but am praying that your memories be only happy ones that push away the sorrow. Wishing you peace (and that your stress levels move lower). Love to you, and may God bless you real good!

“ I didn't know Rhoda that well. But I admired her spunk and her tireless work ethic, even when it was obvious that she wasn't feeling 100%. You can be proud to celebrate her life.

“ I worked 5 doors down from Rhoda, but because we worked in different areas of law and because i tend to be a hermit, i never had the pleasure of interacting with her, until one afternoon when we both found ourselves waiting for what seemed like an eternity for an elevator, with no one else but each other, and then took that elevator down together. During that brief time we struck up a conversation, My feeling after we parted ways at the elevator landing was "wow, what a fascinating woman! What an interesting and rich life she must have had so far. I am an idiot for not getting out more to get to know interesting people like her." Sadly for me, that was the only time i interacted with her, but it was obvious that i was in the presence of a noble, intelligent and radical (in a good way) person. I can only imagine your sorrow and loss.

“ I worked with Rhoda at MWE and was instrumental in having her return to our law firm from WA. Convincing her to return was one of the best things I did not only for Rhoda but especially for MWE. Rhoda was a special person with a wonderful sense of humor and a gift of "understanding people". I treasure the moments that Rhoda and I shared after she found out about her illness. She was a warm caring person whom I shall miss.

“ I worked with Rhoda for years as a fellow paralegal at MWE and had the office next to hers when we were "exiled to Siberia" away from our department. It did give us the opportunity to get to know one another, however, and I found her to be a constant surprise. She was funny, saw more movies than I did, and her perceptions of the world always seemed younger than her age. She was also truly excellent at her job. I will miss her. She touched my life.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Rhoda for many years and will miss her dearly. I am not convinced that she loved working as much as she considered everyone here at MWE to be part of her family. She was quick-witted, intelligent and an expert in probate work. She will be missed deeply by many here who considered her family too. My thoughts go out to all her friends, family and co-workers that she touched. I remember all her struggles, courage, strength and dignity she had battling the cancer. I cannot recall ever hearing her complain, notwithstanding such difficult circumstances. After her first battle with cancer, she came back stronger with a renewed zest for life. After the cancer returned, I knew she would fight just as hard. I know she gave it her all. I miss her and will always remember she was one terrific lady. RIP Rhoda

“ I have worked with Rhoda for about 12 years now, and know first hand what a caring, compassionate and wonderful person she was. She was one of the most knowledgeable paralegals that I have ever had the pleasure of working with. She was a great mentor and teacher to some of the more junior paralegals, and will be greatly missed here at McDermott.

“ "I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love." -Leo Buscaglia To Caroline and her family my thoughts are with you during this time. Love, Kimberly

“ Although I didn't know Rhoda well even though we both worked at McDermott, I always thought her to be a very sweet and lovely woman. We lived in the same area and my husband and I saw her and said hello a couple of times at one of the local restaurants. Please accept my sincere condolences. Susan Brown

“ Hi, I was so sorry to hear about your mom, Rhoda. Your mom was the one who replaced me a McDermott Will & Emery as their paralegal when I retired. It's hard to believe she was 79 yrs. old because she was so lovely and playful. I'll miss her. Judy Conner
