“ It was with deep sadness that I received the news about Rick's passing. Since we were kids, we were closer than brothers. Even after many years passed in between seeing or even speaking to one another, we were able to instantly restart our friendship. Only recently had we begun speaking regularly again. While I knew he was working on his transplant, I still wasn't prepared to hear that my brother had passed. I know that he is in a much better place, being a forgiven child of God and a passionate worshiper of Jesus Christ. Today he stands with his ancestors, without pain, and serves the pleasures of the Savior. Godspeed Rick...

“ THE DAY BEFORE I TURNED ONE YEAR OLD, YOU WERE BORN. WE LIVED THROUGH GOOD TIMES AND BAD TIMES. KNOWING YOU WERE IN THIS WORLD, MADE ALL TIMES GOOD. MISTAKES HAVE BEEN MADE IN OUR LIVES. BUT THROUGH THEM, WE REMEMBERED HOW WE WERE TAUGHT BY OUR FAMILY, AND OUR CLOSE FRIENDS, DR. ALBANESE, JOEY, JOHNIIE, KIP, BOBBY, TONY, DEE DEE, AND MIKE,... FAMILY AND FRIENDS BIND US THROUGH THE GOOD AND BAD.... YOU WERE A CONSTANT THREAD IN THE FABRIC WE CALL LIFE. NO WORDS.
