“ There are so many memories father, I miss you so much. You never know what you have tell there gone it's so true we are never promised tomorrow. One memorie that sticks out is when I believe i was turning 12 you asked what I wanted to do I said fishing. Well I had school the next day which was my birthday so morning happened and as I was getting ready you asked what I was doing I said getting ready for school you said not today you need to be getting ready to go fishing!!! Well at that moment I went outside and sure enough you had the truck and boat hooked up and away we went! That was when I caught my first sturgeon which was keeper size 42" 1/2 I love you for letting me be a kid as you said enjoy being a kid adulating can wait. Love you dad and miss you so much that it hurts!! Tell we fish again old man love your son Josh
