RICHARD CARL WHITE March 9, 1915 ~ Jan. 15, 2010 Richard Carl White of Vancouver, WA, passed away on Jan. 15, 2010 at the age of 94. He was born on March 9, 1915 in Puyallup, WA to Carl S. and Marie E. (Kepper) White. Richard enjoyed camping, hunting, fishing, clamming, wood cutting and gardening. He loved playing with the grandkids. Richard was a member of the NRA. "Dad leaves a legacy of "finishing well". One of his favorite phrases towards the end of his journey was, "the Lord knows". This became the theme of his life in the years after Mom (the love of his life) went home to be with Jesus. He would often say, "I love Jesus and Jesus loves me, but not everything I do.". He will be remembered for his great logging, hunting, fishing and life stories spanning his nearly 95 years. Thanks Dad for loving Jesus and loving Mom and all of us." "Well done good and faithful servant." Richard is survived by his sons, Richard (Carol) White, Michael (Laura) White; daughters, Diane (Dwayne) Muffett and Carrie (Billy) Kennedy. He was preceded in death by his wife, Allene E. White; and sons, Peter and Lloyd White. “ Dick, Diane, Mike and Carrie. My heart is with you all at this time. IF I would have been there to see your dad towards the end I would have said to him, "Thank you for all the very special memories Richard! Give Allene a kiss on the cheek, and bathe in the GLORY that you have recieved. One day we will meet again." Sue and Alan

“ We will all miss Grandpa's bear hugs and smile. We know he is at peace with Grandma now. Thank you Grandpa for giving me the love and joy of the outdoors. Whenever I'm in the woods, I always think of the times you took me with you into the woods. An adventue was always waiting for me, and you always got a good laugh out of it. I hope that I will be able to share that love of the outdoors with my Grandchildren. Miss you , Love Jeff & Mavis
