

Richard Donald White Sr.

April 18, 1937 - July 26, 2022

Richard graduated in 1956 at Evergreen High School. He married his high school sweetheart Florence (Pat) McBroom.

They enjoyed life together for the next 55 years. During that time, he worked at Beemis Bag, Sun Chemical, Kohl and Madden, General Printing Ink, Manitou Supply and Burton Garage. He was a bus driver for the Emanuel Baptist Church and Evergreen School District. He also enjoyed being a volunteer at the Acts of Love Ministry.

Bowling was a great hobby of his. He had many trophies to show for it and was always bowling in several different leagues and tournaments. He was a very avid outdoors man who thrived doing archery, golfing, hunting, camping, fishing, reading, playing games and gardening.

His leadership was known through Orchards Community Fair where he put on livestock judging, cooking, sewing, rides, grease pull activity fund, arm wrestling, nail driving contests. There was also kid's activities like finding pennies in a haystack or a grease pig chase. His efforts always brought communities together and he always created a positive impact on those who surrounded him.
