Rita was born in Portland, OR to Lee and Matilda Scott. She attended The Academy in Vancouver, WA from first through twelfth grade. She had 3 children that she loved dearly. She treated her children's friends as her own and everyone who knew her loved her. Rita worked at Bob Kendall Chevrolet for many years until she retired. She loved doing things with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Her favorite place to go was the Oregon Coast regardless of the time of year or the weather. She is survived by her children, Maria Lattanzi, Scott Emter, Debbie Emter-Weston, and Tina Shotwell; her beloved grandchildren, Allison Young, Casey Lattanzi, Jacob Lattanzi, Paris Coombs, Amanda (Lucille) Emter, Joshua Coombs, and Emily Shotwell; her great-grandchildren, Marcus Young, Richard Young, Austin Lattanzi, and Nolan Young; her sister, Virginia Lorentz; and niece, Jo Ann Allmaras. Rita had suffered through the years with cancer and fought it bravely until she succumbed in peace with her loving family around her.
