ROBERT FAY ARRASMITH June 27, 1946 ~ April 29, 2025

Robert Fay Arrasmith, aged 78, passed away on April 29, 2025, in Battle Ground, WA. Born on June 27, 1946 in St Joseph, MO, Robert's life was marked by his dedication to his family, his country, and his various professional pursuits. Robert served honorably in the Navy, completing four tours in Vietnam, demonstrating bravery and commitment to his nation. His military service was a significant chapter in his life, laying a foundation of discipline and resilience that he carried into his civilian career.

Post-military, Robert pursued a career that kept him close to the sea and the outdoors he loved. He worked as a deep-sea fisherman, which aligned with his passion for the water. His career also took him to Alaska, where he operated heavy equipment, another testament to his adventurous spirit and ability to adapt. Beyond these roles, Robert dedicated years of service as a lieutenant in his local fire department and later as a sergeant at Larch Correction Center, roles that underscored his commitment to community and safety.

A devoted family man, Robert is survived by his wife, Linda Arrasmith; daughters Cindy Riches, Vicki Marshall, Sandy King; step-children Monica Donohue, Derrick Mckinney; 10 grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren. His life was enriched by these relationships, and his role as a patriarch was cherished by his large and loving family.

Robert's personal interests included hunting and fishing, hobbies that reflected his love for nature and the outdoors. He also had a passion for traveling, always eager to explore new places and experience different cultures, which kept his spirit vibrant and curious.

A Celebration of Life open house will be held at The Cedars Public House in Brush Prairie, located at 15001 NE 181st St, from 5:30-7:30 P.M. on Wednesday, May 21. Guests are invited to dress casually as they come together to honor Robert's memory and legacy.
