

Robert John Funk

November 15, 1942 - June 2, 2010

"He was loved by many and will be greatly missed by all." Robert John Funk of Vancouver, WA, passed away on June 2, 2010. He was born in Sedalia, MO on Nov. 15, 1942 to Norma Juanita and Oliver Harden Funk. He moved to Vancouver during WW II at the age of three and has lived in this area since then. Robert, or "Bob", as he was known to everyone, was a believer! He believed in God, family, and friends. If you were ever his friend, you were always his friend until the end of his life. Bob retired from DSU in 2004. He loved western music, western dance, working out with his friends at Club Oxford, hunting every year with his brothers and good friends, and enjoying a Saturday morning breakfast of farm-style potatoes at Christine's, a restaurant in his neighborhood. He enjoyed his family and friends and was always the last to leave any get-together. Bob is survived by his wife of 43 years, Mary; four wonderful daughters, Lisa (Scott) Johns, Tami (Rich) Lieser, Debbie (Tom) Alcomendas, and Nancy (Dave) Soucy; the light of his life were his eight grandchildren: four grandsons, and four granddaughters. He is also survived by his father, Oliver Harden Funk; his four brothers, Tom, Dan, Steven, and David; as well as many nieces and nephews. He has joined his mother, Juanita who preceded him in death in December 2009.

“ Mary & Family, We are deeply saddened by Bob's passing. You have been in our thoughts and prayers for quite awhile. I always enjoyed visiting with your family. Bob & Mary made a point to make us feel welcome whenever we visited. I have so many great memories, 4th of July bar-b-ques, Weddings, and many other occasions. We are lucky to have known Bob, Rest in peace! Love, Michael, Debra, Ryan & MJr
