“ Robert The news was heartbreaking when i found out that my family had lost a brother. Me and you weren't that close, but you were still my boy. This past year was hard enough with moving across the country and hearing about what my friends were going through with out me. You brought people together, and i just wanted to leave a little something for you. I love you man and i just wanted you to know that i was thinking about you. My prayers go out to his family. Rest In Peace BIG GUY!

“ To Robert's Dear Parents and Family, Please accept my sincere condolences. The loss of a child has to be the most devastating thing there is. At times like these, "God is near to those who are broken at heart; And those crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34:18) I hope this will bring you a measure of comfort. I just wanted to tell you about a promise from God that states in the near future, that we can see our dead loved ones right here on the earth. "Death is an enemy", as the Bible states, and "soon it will be brought to nothing" (1 Cor. 15:26) There will be no more tears, pain, or sorrow, as the former things will be passed away-Rev. 21:3,4. May your warm memories and sure scriptural hope sustain you at this difficult time.

“ Robert, you always knew how to put a smile on my face, if was the crazy stuff you would say, or even your laugh, you always made me smile. My favorite memory of you was when you told me you wanted to be my first kiss. When you told me that, I honestly felt special that you wanted to be my first kiss. I only wish that I would have let you do it. R.I.P. Robert Gonzalez <3
