

Robert Blake Littleton

July 10, 1989 - June 11, 2012

ROBERT BLAKE LITTLETON July 10, 1989 ~ June 11, 2012 Robert Blake Littleton, 22, died June 11, 2012, in Vancouver, Washington. He was born July 10, 1989 to Robert A. Littleton of Vancouver and Wendy Smith Littleton of O'Brien, OR. He attended Columbia River High School and went on to get his Electrical Lineman degree from the Northwest Lineman College in Meridian, ID. Blake was known by all as having the kindest soul and most forgiving spirit with the ability to make all those around him brighten up with his contagious smile. He was loving, giving, easygoing, loyal and didn't have a mean bone in his body. Blake loved his family more than anything and was an awesome big brother to his younger siblings. Blake will be deeply missed by all. Blake is survived by his father, Robert; surrogate mother, Aunt Lisa Littleton; mother, Wendy; siblings, Megan, Cole, Brandon and Addy; grandmother, Louise Littleton of Yakima, WA; uncles, Mark Littleton, Ron Cochran, and Eric Stoltz; aunts, Luanne and Katie Littleton; cousins, Neil, Kara, Luke, Krisanna, and Jackie; and many other family members and dear friends. He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Robert G. Littleton. A memorial service will be held at New Heights Church, 7913 NE 58th Ave., Vancouver on Friday, June 15, 2012 at 1:00 p.m. Donations in lieu of flowers may be sent to Lifeline Connections at 1601 E. Fourth Plain Blvd. Bldg 17 Ste. A212 Vancouver, WA 98661. 360.397.8246 www.lifeconnections.org or a homeless shelter of your choice.
