“ Robert had a huge heart and loved his family and everyone he was close to very much. He deserved every ounce of happiness that life brought to him and we were all very lucky to share the pieces of his life that we were able to. I am praying for all of you and I love you all very much. He is in the happiest place he could be now and he will never feel pain again, just pure joy and happiness! Love - Linds

“ He was a shooting star, one that shinned brighter than any other and was gone far to fast. He was loved by everyone he meet. There is no words to speak of how much he will be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with you Jenni and Chase, as well as all of his other family and friends that are undoubtably in pain. -Crystal and Wes
