While growing up in East Wenatchee, Roberta and her family were faithful members of Wenatchee Church of Christ and attended regularly with extended family. The Earhart family was active in many community activities including participating and traveling throughout the Northwest with the Wenatchee Youth Circus while Roberta “Rabbi” performed as a high wire walker for six years. After high school, Roberta attended Columbia Christian College in Portland, OR, where she earned her Associates Degree and met her future husband, Gerald Davis. Roberta and Gerald were married in Wenatchee, WA on December 28, 1963, before making Vancouver, WA their home and raising three sons: Kirk, Darrin, and Bart.

Roberta was a dedicated wife and thoughtful mother. In all her efforts, Roberta was humble, generous, smart, and funny! Her life’s joy was found in family, faith, and service. As an active member of Clark County Quilters Guild, she participated in countless quilt shows, retreats, and lively games of dominoes. Roberta's greatest passion was collecting fabric and making quilts for her family. In most recent years, her time and talents were dedicated to Project Linus, where she helped make and distribute thousands of blankets to comfort children in need. Her mission was to use the fabric that she loved to bless other people. In the weeks and days before her passing, her focus remained in finishing as many projects as possible.
