

Rodney J. Wokojance Sr.

October 29, 1944 - November 4, 2012

RODNEY J. WOKOJANCE SR. October 29, 1944 ~ November 4, 2012

Rodney J. Wokojance Sr., 68, a longtime resident of Battle Ground, WA, passed away peacefully at Ray Hickey House on Nov. 4, 2012. He was born in Shelton, WA on Oct. 29, 1944, the youngest of seven children of Frank and Billie Mae Wokojance. He will always be remembered as a loving and selfless son, brother, cousin, father, and grandfather. In his youth, Rodney was an avid outdoorsman and adventurer. He shared his love of the outdoors with his sons and daughters with countless camping and hiking trips throughout the western U.S. He attended Shelton High School where he lettered in football, track, and baseball. He enjoyed following many sports, especially college football and basketball. Rodney is survived by his four children: Rodney J. Wokojance Jr., Shane T. Wokojance, Brandi A. Wokojance and Melissa M. Wokojance; grandson, Rodney J. Wokojance III; sister, June M. McPherson; and numerous nieces, nephews and friends. A memorial service will be held Sat., Nov. 17th, 2012 at 3:00 p.m. at Evergreen Memorial Gardens.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 07:08 PM