

Roger William Falter

April 16, 1938 - July 22, 2014

ROGER FALTER 1938 ~ 2014 Roger W. Falter, 76, passed away in his Vancouver, WA home on July 22. He left this life early in the morning with his wife Patricia and daughters, Angie and Lisa, by his side; he was always eager to get the day started. He was born in Kelso to Arthur and Frances Falter, the oldest of seven children. He was predeceased by his sisters, Darlene and Sherry, and survived by his brothers, Ted, Terry and Ricky, and his sister, Cindy. Roger was a firm believer in hard work. His family remembers him as a man of sterling character, very generous, letting his actions speak for him. His memorial service will be held at Glenwood Community Church in September. Should friends desire, contributions may be sent to Options 360 Pregnancy Clinic. His family thanks the staff of Heart Connections Hospice Southwest. Please sign his Guest Book at www.columbian.com/obits.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 09:16 PM