“ although the first time I met Rolly was at another passing of his wife Doris family he was funny and very kind to me.I am sure he will greatly missed by all that knew Rolly. And now he is in heaven with other members of this family and sure they are welcoming him with open arms and he can go fishing with other friends and family now hope is looking down on his family now. As the family shares fond memories of their dad and husband now. I am so sorry to hear that he passed away this past week but he is out of pain now and may he rest in peace now.
