

Ronald Alfred Briggs

May 27, 1945 - June 28, 2010

"Ron was an easy going guy, liked by everyone. He will be missed by all of his family members and friends." Ronald Alfred Briggs of Vancouver, WA passed away June 28, 2010 of natural causes. He was born in Walnut, IA on May 27, 1945 and his family moved to Portland, OR in 1948 to be near other family members. Ron attended school in Portland. He completed an apprenticeship program to become a Journeyman Lineman through IBEW #125. Ron worked for Clark Public Utilities for 26 years, retiring in 2003. Ron enjoyed attending and officiating local lineman's rodeo events; he loved his work and was very proud to be a lineman. Ron married Betty Marie Enslin (deceased) in 1997. He and Betty were inseparable, they enjoyed traveling, family camp-outs, watching NASCAR and spending time with their family. Ron is survived by his sister, Sherie Wait; brothers, Rodney Briggs, Douglas Simila and Kenneth Simila; his daughter, Paula (and Jason) Maden; son, Dustin (and Shawna) Briggs; step-children, Tammy (and Kenny) Ogburn, Mike (and Lalegna) Ober, Bobby (and Cindy) Ober, Audrey (and Roderick) Nims, Valerie (and Benjamin) Goetz, Forrest Anglemeyer Jr., Roxanne (and Kelley) Thompson, Trevor Anglemeyer; 30 grandchildren; and 20 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by father, Edwin (1959); mother, Arlene (2008); step-father, Maurice (2001); brother, Ted (1993); and brother, Larry (2010).
