

Ronald Cornell Irwin

June 15, 1925 - November 6, 2012

RONALD IRWIN June 15, 1925 ~ November 6, 2012 Ronald Irwin, 87, of Vancouver, WA, passed away quietly on November 6, 2012 surrounded by his family. He moved with his family from Kimball, Nebraska to a farm in Orchards and attended Union High School. Ron fished on the Woodland bar for many years, catching salmon to share with friends and family. He loved camping and hunting with the love of his life, his wife, Naomi. He was a devoted father, who worked the "graveyard" shift for most of his career as a Vancouver Policeman, so he could be there when his children came home from school. He was a retired Vancouver Police Sergeant with 25 years of service. He then worked as a bus driver for the Vancouver School District for 13 years. He loved children and was daily rewarded with their school-made crafts, pictures and cards. Ron is survived by his son, Mark Irwin (Connie) and his daughter, Susan Nova (Robert); brothers, John and Robert; sisters, Peggy, Marion and Betty; six grandchildren; and 16 great-grandchildren. Memorial service will be Monday, November 12, 2012 at 10:00 a.m. at Evergreen Memorial Gardens.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 07:07 PM

“ I remember the bar-b-que's at Uncle Ron's as a kid, and camping in the back yard. I remember him as a strong man, confident in himself. I remember the twinkle in his eye when he was telling a story, and his smile when he talked to you. The world has been diminished by his passing.

Timothy Irwin - November 10, 2012 at 12:00 AM