

Rosalie Martell

May 12, 1916 - January 22, 2011

Rosalie Martell of Vancouver, WA, passed away on Jan. 22, 2011. She was born in Switzerland. Rosalie immigrated to Vancouver with her mother, Clara Spohel when she was a child. She married Anthony Martell and had nine children together. In her younger days, she enjoyed farming, gardening, cooking and canning. She was a lover of animals and had many dogs, cats and birds throughout her lifetime. Rosalie and her husband were active members of the Eagle Lodge and Moose Lodge. She belonged to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Rosalie is survived by her brother, Tony (Hilda) Sohn; daughters, Anthonette Miller, Marie (Dick) Fronk, Gloria Cameron and Julie Martell; sons, Victor (Delores) Martell and Erwin Martell. She was preceded in death by husband, Anthony Martell of forty-nine years; and second husband of sixteen years, Jack Hollenbeck; daughters, Jennie Herrod and Louise Hollenbeck; son, Nick Martell; and granddaughter, Cindy Martella.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 08:25 PM

“ Aunt Rosalie was more than my aunt she was also my friend. Although she lived in Washington and I lived in Pennsylvania, we became very close and shared alot of thoughts and memories in the letters we wrote to one another. My prayers and thoughts are with all of you. I love you all. Patty

Patricia J Santangelo - January 26, 2011 at 12:00 AM