

Rose May Ayers

September 20, 1911 - October 21, 2011

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

LC

“ Aunt Rose was my father's sister. All of her siblings are gone now and an era has passed. Rose was a kick. She was always welcoming. Loved tomatoes and growing things. Watched the birds and the squirrels, was cook aboard a boat, used a Gibson tractor to cultivate potatoes, and lived to be 100 years young. She had strong opinions and shared them. She didn't like my beard against her face when we hugged, but that's okay. She has gone home to be with her loved ones that have been gone so long. Bye Aunt Rose. Until later. Love, Larry.

Larry Cummings - October 28, 2011 at 12:00 AM

LC

“ Aunt Rose was my father's sister. All of her siblings are gone now and an era has passed. Rose was a kick. She was always welcoming. Loved tomatoes and growing things. Watched the birds and the squirrels, was cook aboard a boat, used a Gibson tractor to cultivate potatoes, and lived to be 100 years young. She had strong opinions and shared them. She didn't like my beard against her face when we hugged, but that's okay. She has gone home to be with her loved ones that have been gone so long. Bye Aunt Rose. Until later. Love, Larry.

Larry Cummings - October 28, 2011 at 12:00 AM

PG

“ I will so miss her strong spirit and smile. Her memories of riding horses with hr brother, her buggy ride which resulted in a proposal and marriage all in one afternoon- these were a few of the many wonderful memories she shared with us. We will miss Rose for her gentle and her strong ways. "don't you know it ! " she would say with a smile, a hug, & a peck on the cheek. Rest in peace free of pain and anxiety my friend.

Patti Gray - October 22, 2011 at 12:00 AM

MW

“ I will miss Rose at Van Mall Retirement. It was my pleasure to know her and her cousin Evelyn Poff who was always there for Rose. Through the good and bad times. Rose was lucky to have such a caring person in her life. Thank you Evelyn. Rose, I am glad you came into my life, rest in peace.

Marolyn Wagoner - October 22, 2011 at 12:00 AM