“ A Year Already

Gil Garcia - August 10, 2016 at 12:00 AM

“ Thank you every one for your kind and compassionate comments regarding my Dearest Sally. This immeasurable loss is tempered by the fact that she was appreciated and loved by so many people such as each of you who took the time to share your memories of her.

“ I worked closely with Sally at the Portland VA Medical Center since she came to Human Resources. Sally was the most kind and patient person. We shared a work relationship that was just awesome. I can not express how shocked and sad I feel with her sudden passing. I will always think of her fondly. God Bless her family and give them strength.

“ Ive known Sally for almost 8 years, and she always had such a warm heart, and was a loving mother/ daughter/ grandmother/ wife/ friend. I got to know her on a personal level when she was the Local Veterans Employment Rep in Vancouver for ESD, and after that she was and always will be my friend. She was up for any adventure or movie night. She went through a lot in the past couple years, and yet she held no grudges and continued being a strong and kind person to everyone. She was an adopted Grandma to my 4-year old son, and the loss of her in his life is heartbreaking for all of us. We will miss you Sally.

“ So sorry for your loss Gil and family. I last spoke with Sally in May, seeking clarification on how to help veterans apply for jobs with the VA. She was always available to help fellow veterans whether she was on the job , or in one of her many volunteer activities. A true patriot who will be missed!

“ Sally was a dedicated volunteer (and former employee) of the Humane Society for Southwest Washington. When I first started she was my right hand. She was my friend, my partner in crime, my advisor and so incredibly dedicated to the organizations success. I can't believe she is gone. The world has lost such a wonderful soul. I will miss her crooked smile, her calm nature and her infectious laugh.

“ Sally epitomizes the words kindness and friendship for me. She is so thoughtful, thinking of others and giving little gifts as well as encouragement. She loves her family with all her heart and enjoys talking with me about them. I love you, Sally and will carry our memories forever in my heart.

“ I served in the American Legion with Sally as a fellow Post Officer. She was a funny, bright, smart, resourceful, and strong woman. She was one who made things happen because she cared about serving Veterans. I called upon her expertise many times as I began my transition from military to civilian. Our Veteran community has lost a true advocate. I will miss her greatly.
